

Unknown

---

From: Andrew Turner MP [mailto:islandmp.com]
Sent: 29 October 2009 15:19
To: [REDACTED]
Subject: RE: Letter from your constituent [REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your email.

---

[REDACTED]

places, most notably those stainless steel obelisks in most Spanish Piazzas nowadays, and BT's partnership with this excellent program to place such hotspots in our public places is currently being expanded, that seems to be hurtling headlong into a

— 2012 | Stefan Timme MD

MD

http://www.dcms.gov.uk/what we do/broadcasting/5631.aspx

Alongside the Digital Britain report we issued a consultation setting out our regulatory proposals. In a nutshell these were obligations which would require ISPs to write to subscribers whose account had been identified in connection with an infringement of copyright.

CHRIS BRYANT MP
Member of Parliament for the Rhondda

5 Cemetery Road, PORTH

Rhondda, CF39 0LG

Tel: 01443 687697

Tel: 01443 687621

Fax: 01443 686405

Email: bryantc@parliament.uk

Rt. Hon. Lord Mandelson
Secretary of State for Department Business, Enterprise
& Regulatory Reform
Ministerial Correspondence Unit
1 Victoria Place
London. SW1H 0ET

Our Ref: MN/[REDACTED]02001/02090217

02 November 2009

Dear Secretary of State

Re: Three Strikes and Out in Digital Economy Bill

I have recently received an email from my constituent, Mr [REDACTED], regarding proposals for the Digital Economy Bill. Please see the attached copy of Mr Feely's email and the article which brought about the enquiry for further information.

I would be grateful if you could consider my constituent's concerns and look forward to your response.

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: 30 October 2009 12:38
To: RBYANT Chris

Hi Chris,

UK and Three Strikes: What Not to Do in an Election Year

Call To Action by Danny O'Brien

The arbitrary termination of Internet access for repeated accusations of copyright infringement -- "three strikes" -- is as profoundly unpopular in the UK as it is elsewhere. National experts have generally come out against the idea, from government civil servants who previously omitted it from a public consultation to the counter-intelligence MI5 unit, who apparently fear

The Rt Hon Stephen Timms MP
Minister for Digital Britain

Chris Bryant MP
House of Commons
London
SW1A 0AA

Our ref: GG/156829
Your ref: MN/F 02001/02090217

23 November 2009

Dear Chris

Thank you for your letter of 2 November to Lord Mandelson, enclosing correspondence from your constituent. Mr [REDACTED]

This was followed by the Digital Britain Report in 2009.

156488

RECEIVED
IN DCU

30 OCT 2009

HOUSE OF COMMONS

LONDON SW1A 0AA

BONE, Peter

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: 23 October 2009 23:18
To: BONE, Peter
Subject: Letter from your constituent [REDACTED]

Low graphics | Help

"In the event we are instructed to impose extra judicial technical measures we will challenge the instruction in the courts."

Lord Mandelson emphasised that cutting off internet access

Disconnected

BIS | Department for Business
Innovation & Skills

The Rt Hon Stephen Timms MP
Minister for Digital Britain

Peter Bone MP
House of Commons
London
SW1A 0AA

Our ref: SW/156488
Your ref:

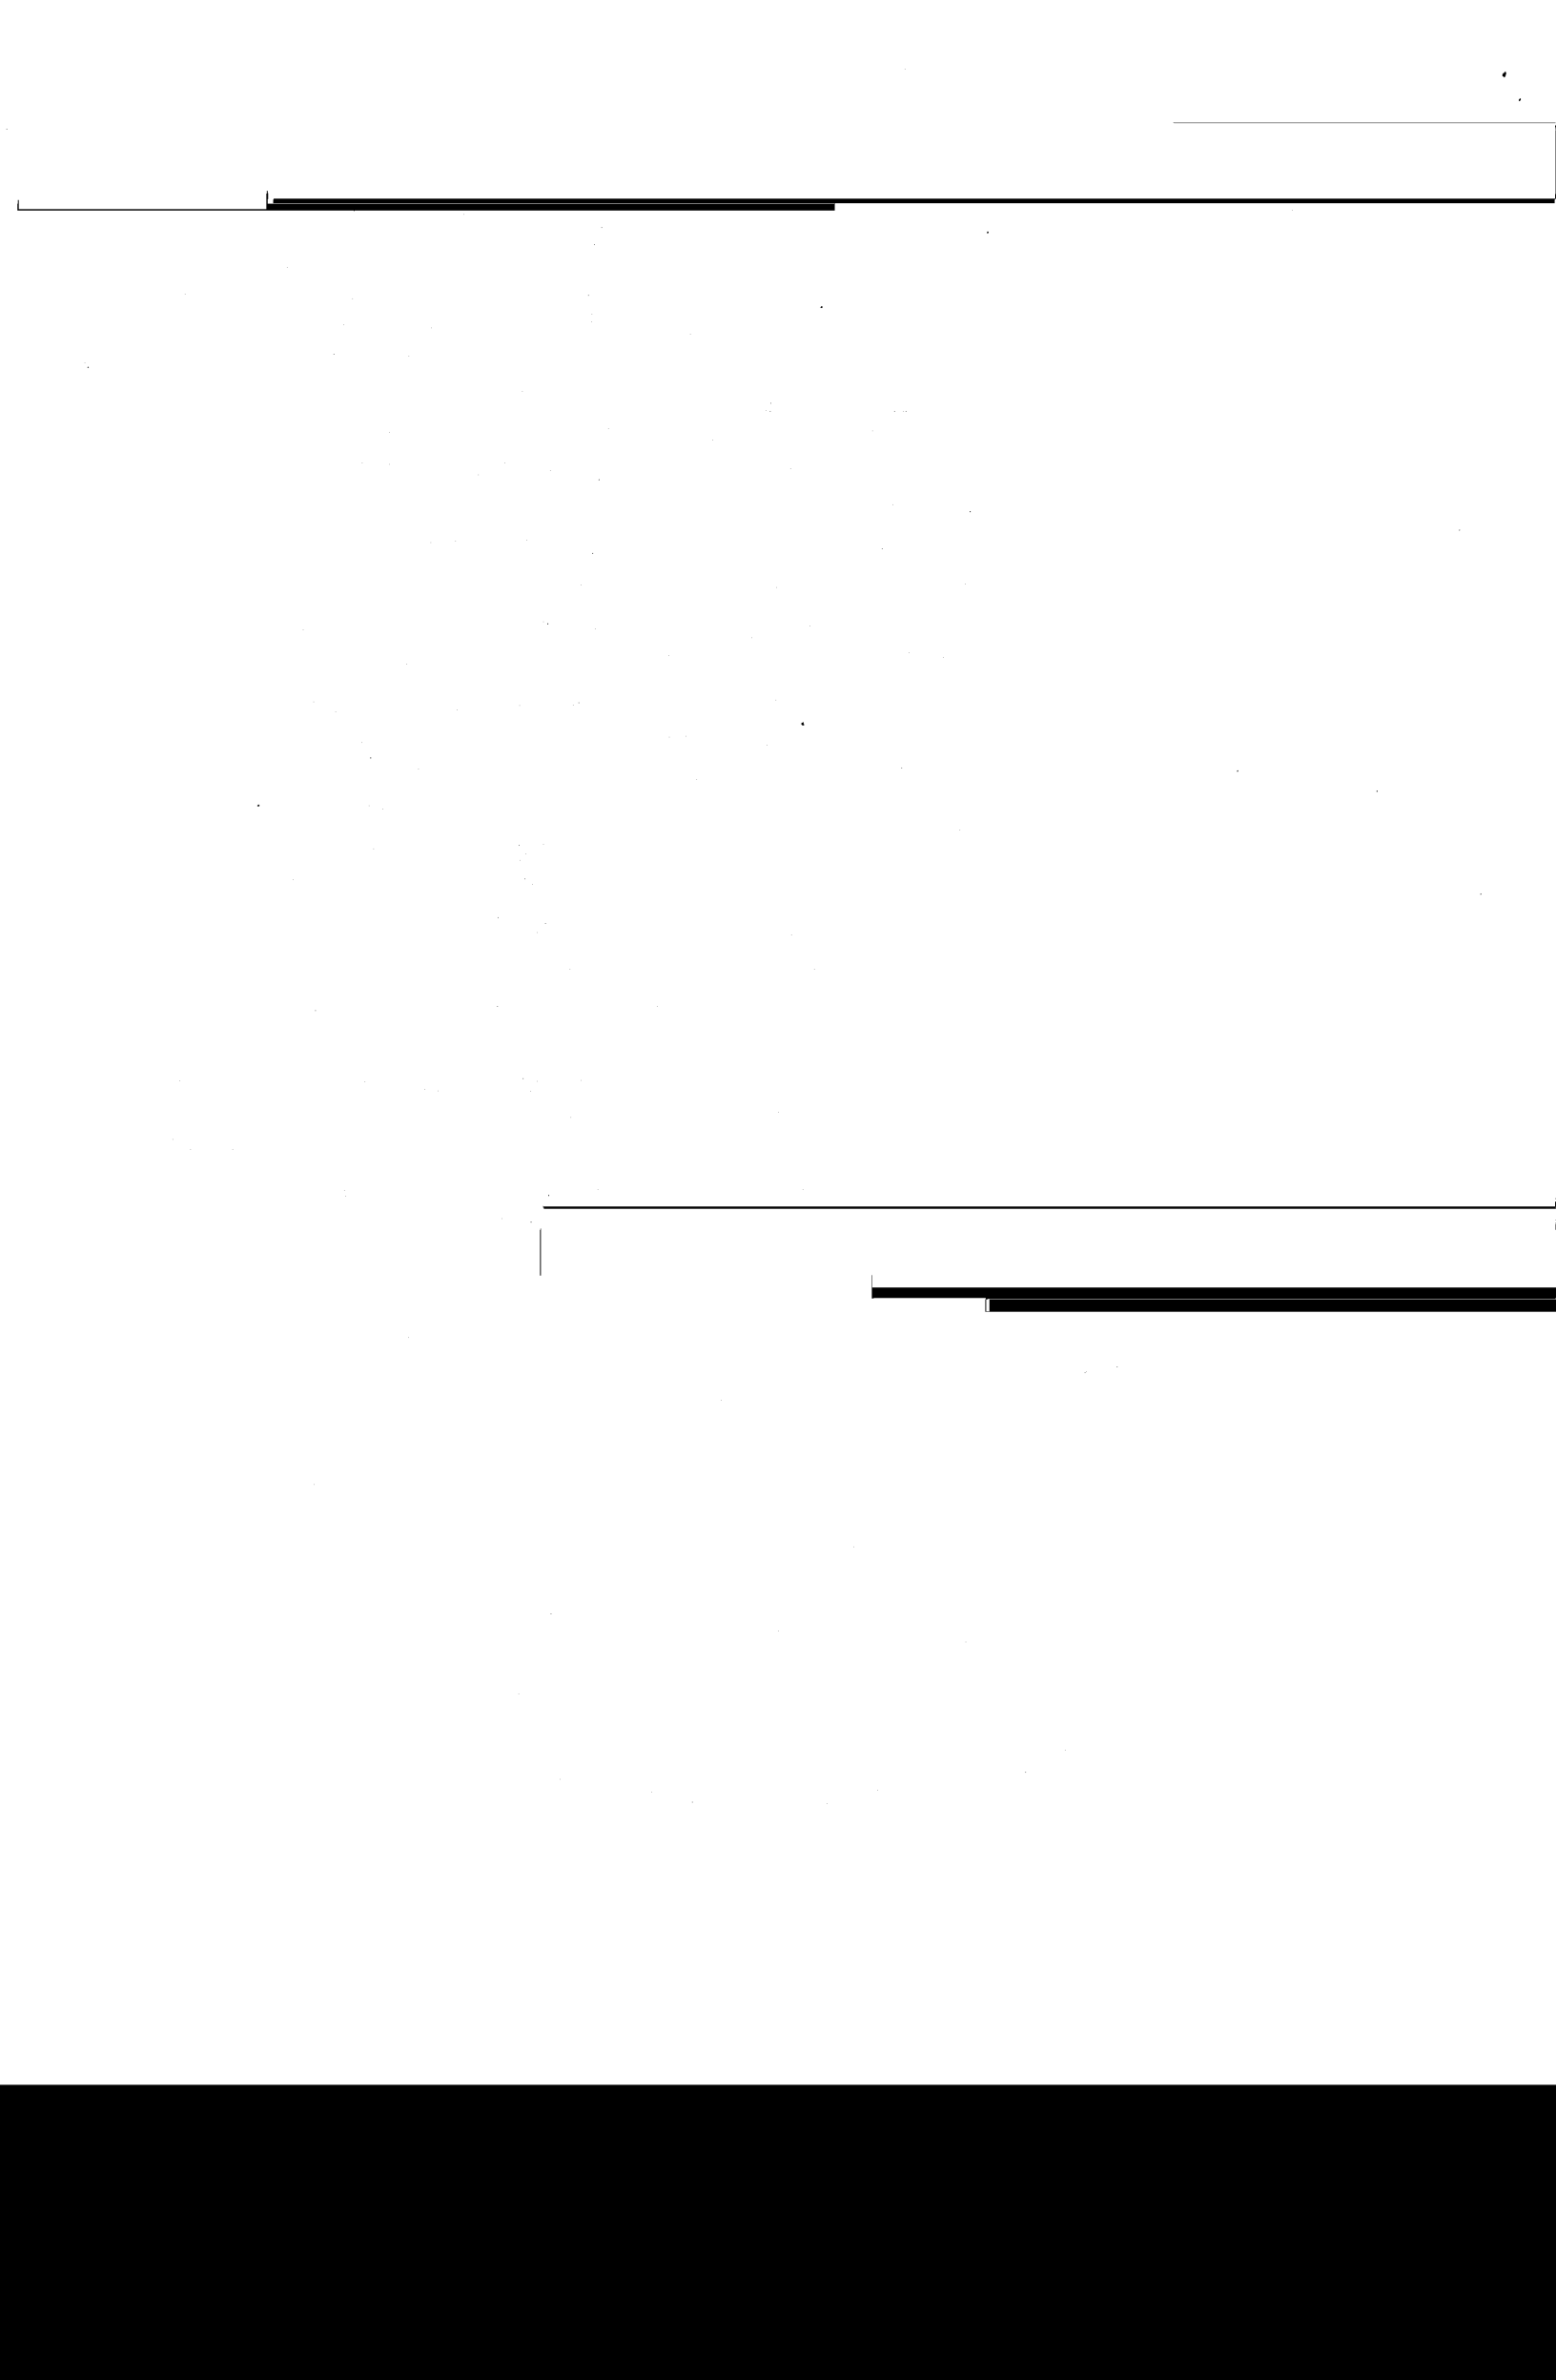

23 November 2009

Dear Peter

Alongside the Digital Britain report we issued a consultation

We recognise that any solution must protect individuals' privacy. The Government will build in safeguards to ensure the rights of the consumer are protected, and will also ensure policy proposals comply with relevant data protection legislation, including the ePrivacy Directive, under which ISPs

ANDREW SELOUS MP

BIS

Department for Business
Innovation & Skills

The Rt Hon Stephen Timms MP

Minister of State

The "graduated response" or "3 strikes and you're out" system has been discussed between the different industry parties in the context of voluntary 17 ... to implement. However the

Celia Barlow MP

29 October 2009

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

Phone: [REDACTED]

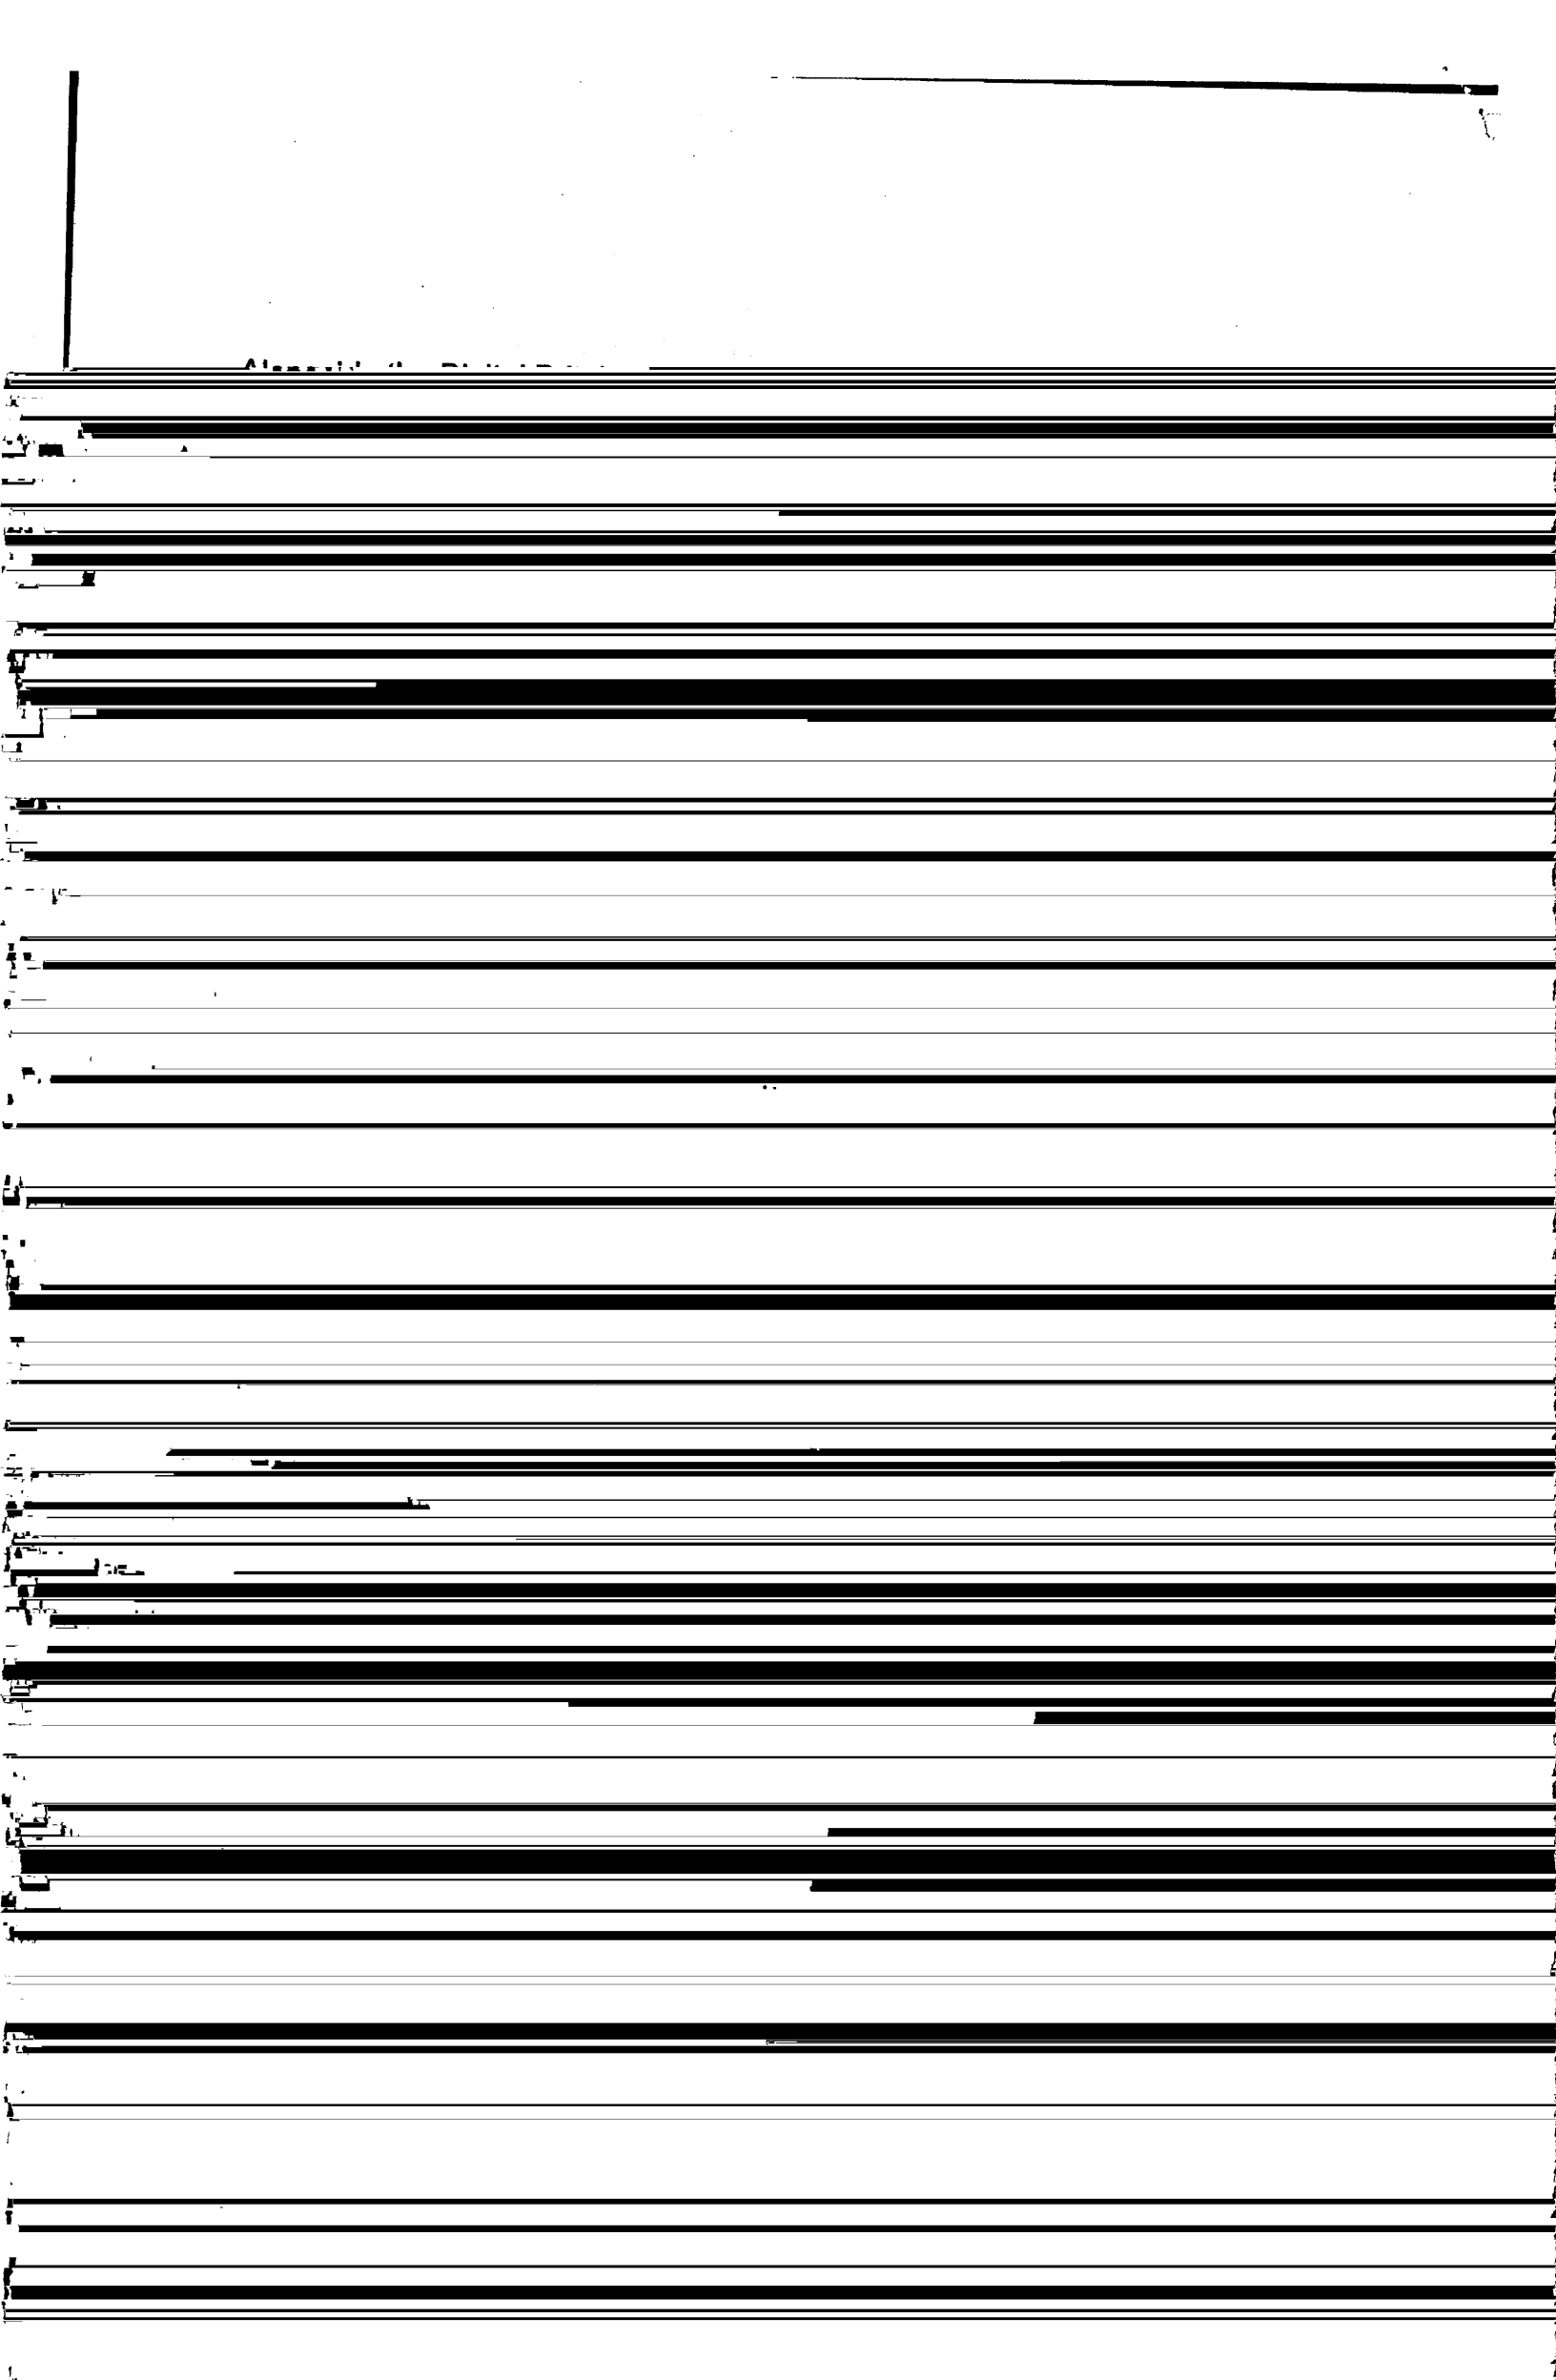

Email: [REDACTED]

Thursday 29 October 2009

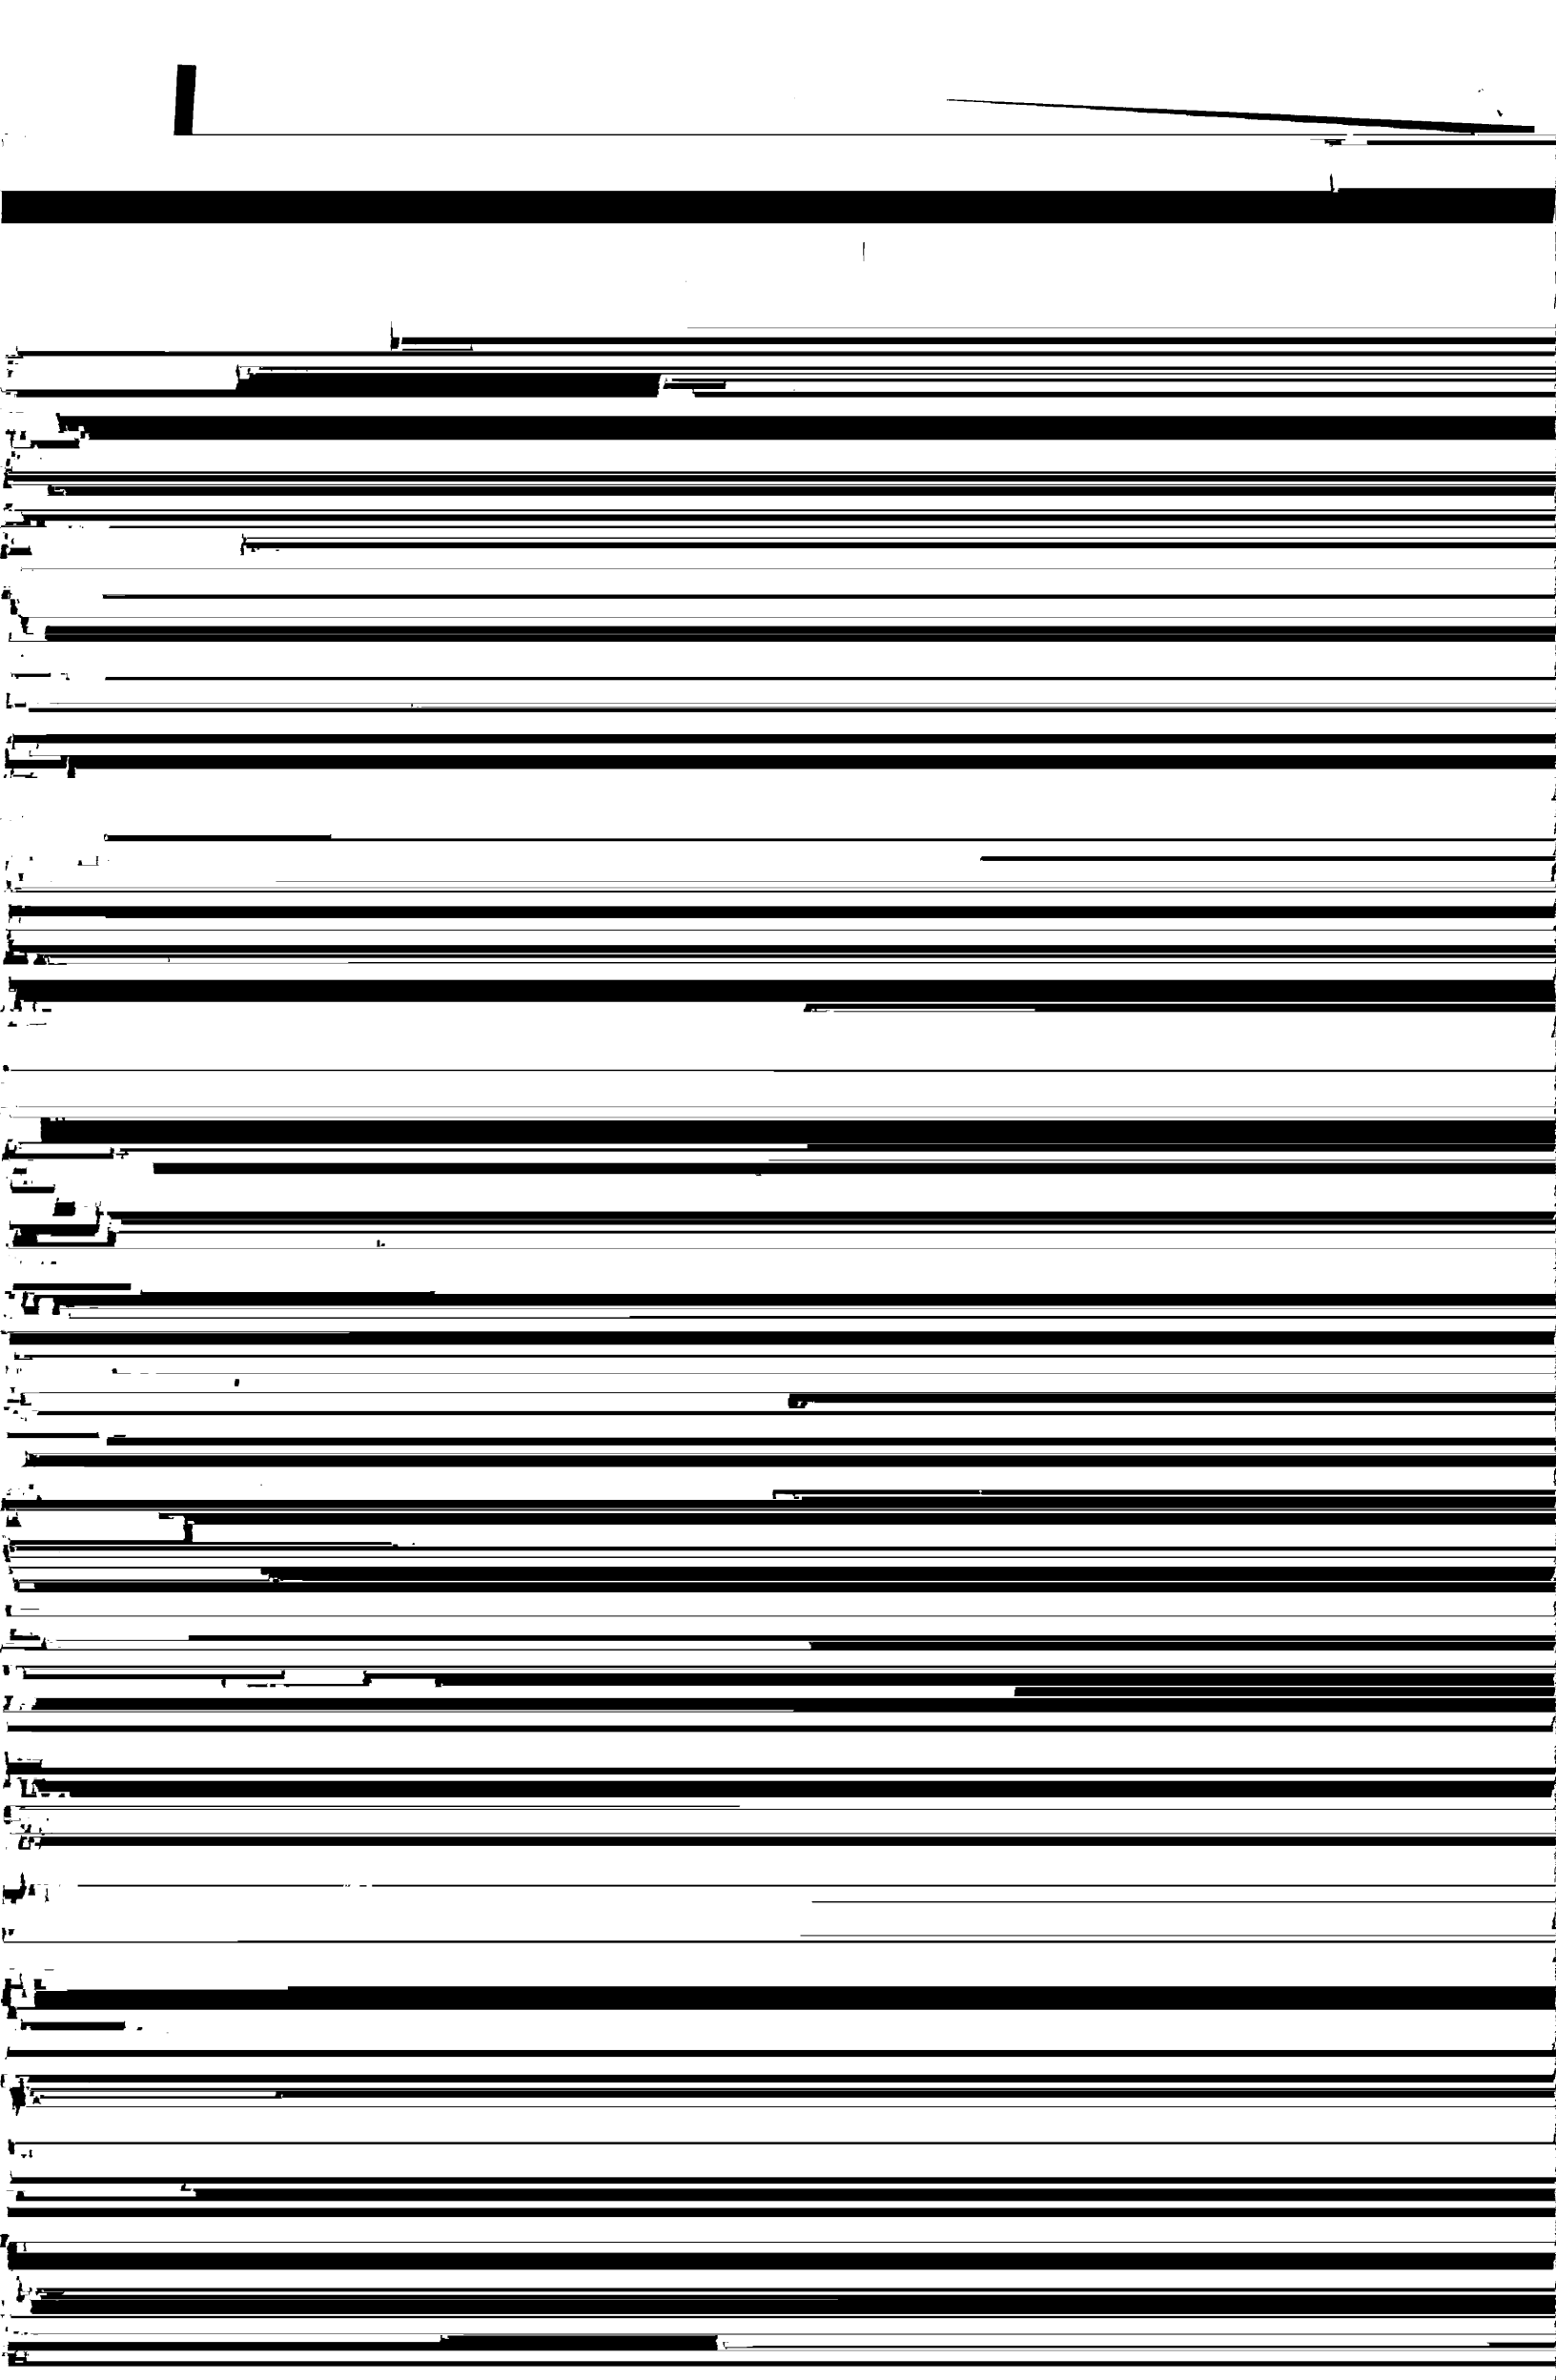

Dear Sir,

[REDACTED]

22 November 2009

The "graduated response" or "3 strikes and you're out" system has been discussed between the different industry parties in the context of voluntary implementation

HOUSE OF COMMONS
LONDON SW1A 0AA

The Rt. Hon. Lord Peter Mandelson
Secretary of State

ask sent 26/10/09 -
Have contacted Sec. of State.

[REDACTED]

Done David I

BIS | Department for Business
Innovation & Skills

The Rt Hon Stephen Timms MP
Minister for Digital Britain

Our ref: 156893

David Jenner MP

London

SW1A 0AA

Dear David

Mr [REDACTED] makes reference to the criminal justice system and questions how what we propose fits with this.